

Wirhalh Skip Felagr provide excellent living history events tailored to suit all venues

Gina Couch, World Museum Liverpool

About us

Now in our 20th Anniversary Year Wirhalh Skip Felagr (The Wirral Ship Fellowship) is Merseyside's leading early medieval Living History group, and is part of the larger international "dark age" reenactment society Regia Anglorum.

Wirhalh Skip Felagr focus on providing Viking Reenactment & Living History displays for Wirral, N. Wales, Liverpool & Chester bringing to life the Hiberno Norse who settled the Wirral from 902AD, but we cover all aspects of the Viking period from 793AD to 1066AD.

Wirhalh Skip Felagr
www.wirralvikings.org.uk

Explore Wirrals Viking past

Wirhalh Skip Felagr - The Wirral Ship Fellowship brings Wirrals Viking past vividly to life

Our Services

Living history encampment, craft displays, weapons displays & battle re-enactment

Educational displays and presentations, renowned by academics for their quality

University and school visits, talks and interactive displays on Wirrals Viking past.

Contact us now to bring Viking history to life

Wirralh Skip Felagr
www.wirralvikings.org.uk